TACOMA, Wash, Oct. 1.-After ending two days in and about Sea attle, President Taft came to Tacoma tonight and received from an audience the most cordial greetings of his trip. The president was entertained at dinthe Union club, after making the trip from Seattle on board the yacht El Primero, owned by Chester Thorne, The torpedo-boat destroyer Perry es-rted the yacht. Before leaving Seattle the president aid a last visit to the exposition to iew the big livestock exhibit. All the prize cattle, horses, pigs and sheep were on view, their heads and horns decorated with blue ribbons. Mr. Taft apparently found great interest in the exhibit and spent more than twice the length of time originally alloted to it. He patted some of the cattle and horses on the head and asked many questions of the hreeders. Finally from the judges' stand he made a brief speech until a chorns of bleats and grunts and the lowing of kine, complimenting the exhibitors of their fine showing and the progress that had been made in this country in the last lifteen years in the way of scientific farming and breeding.

PRETENDER TO THRONE

PARIS. Oct. 2.—A dispatch to the Matin from Fez says inquiries show that El Rogali, the pretender to the throne of Morocco, who was executed at Fez in the middle of September, was put to death by Sultan Mulai Hadd himself, under circumstances of revolting cruelty. According to the correspondent, the monarch, assisted by its chamberlain, dragged the pretender into a care of lions and then provoked the animals, which leaped upon the manacled captive, inflicting horrible wounds.

Then as El Boghi fell to the ground motionless, the lions left him alone, despite the goodings of the sultan, who thereupon pulled his still living victim outside the cage with books, emptied a can of lamp oil over him and set him on fire, feeding the lames with off-soaked rags until nothing but the charred bones of the pretender remained.
